Mervin Johnson, assistant coach of the U of A Razorbacks, gave the Hope Rotary Club "A Look at the Razorbacks for '67", when the club met on March 17 at the Town and Country.

"We have bigger and stronger men this year, and the quarterback outlook is good," he said. The positions were named with the possible players for each, and he praised the good attitude of the team. "Right now there is a certain amount of uncertainty, but we'll know more of what to expect after spring practice," he added.

The St. Patrick's Day program was arranged by Earl O'Neal. A club guest, John Wilson, member of the U of A Board of Trustees, introduced the speaker. In the absence of the president, Vice-President Clyde Fouse had charge of the business session and urged attendance at the Rotary District Conference in Hot Springs April 19-20.

The Rev. Warren R. Martin of Texarkana was a visiting Rotarian. The large number of guests included Coaches Freddie Glaze, Joe Austin, and Larry Dopson, Mike Kelly, Syd McMath, Philip Hastie, Jerry O'Neal, Jack Gardner, all of Hope and Cecil Smith and James Ramage of Little Rock.

Tanker Poses Threat to British Beaches

LANDS END, England (AP) — Calm seas today increased the chances of hauling a leaking American supertanker from an offshore reef, and thousands of tons of its crude oil cargo floated away from British beaches and out into the open sea.

As salvage crews renewed their efforts following an Atlantic storm, coast guardsmen said the prospects of refloating the 123,000-ton Torrey Canyon were still slim. A major worry was that the tanker, even if freed from the rocks, might break up and pour all its 120,000 tons of oil into the sea.

The Torrey Canyon is nearly 1,000 feet long, bigger than many ocean liners, and is believed the largest ship ever wrecked in British water in peacetime. It is owned by the Liberia-based Barracuda Tanker Corp., a subsidiary of the Union Oil Co. of California. About a quarter of its cargo has already seeped through a hole in the tanker's hull and has formed an oil slick 18 miles long. The slick covers 70 square miles of water and is more than a foot deep in parts.

Miles of beaches in Cornwall and the Scilly Isles, as well as seaside resorts in Ireland and France had been endangered. Prime Minister Harold Wilson ordered a major navy operation to protect the beaches. Three ships sprayed the oil slick with thousands of tons of detergent, and naval officers said the oil appeared to be dispersing in some areas.

Winds pushed the oil southward Sunday night, clear of the British coast weathermen as in London said it would be wrong to assume that the menace had passed.

The tanker grounded Saturday on Seven Stones Reef, west of Lands End, England's southwest tip. Two attempts to refloat it failed Sunday.

Commission to Visit Prison Farms

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The 13-member Arkansas Penitentiary Study Commission decided Saturday to pay visits April 14 and 15 to the subject of its study — Tucker and Cummins Prison Farms.

The commission, meeting for the first time, also decided to invite Austin McCormick of New York, executive director of the Osborne Association, to act as a consultant. He had already volunteered for the job.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller left the commission members a memorandum which said: "My hope and prayer is that you will put aside all of your personal feelings and objectively examine the facts and reveal them to the public, so that all our citizens may, in turn, have a basis for intelligent decisions."

WANTED! MEN — WOMEN

From ages 18 and over. Prepare now for U.S. Civil Service job openings during the next 12 months.

Government positions pay high starting salaries. They provide much greater security than private employment and excellent opportunity for advancement. Many positions require little or no specialized education or experience.

But to get one of these jobs you must pass a test. The competition is keen and in some cases only one out of five pass.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

NO SECRETS FROM MAMA?

Dear Helen: We were discussing the hazards of raising boys at our club the other day. One gal didn't make herself very popular with us by saying, "I have no problems — my son tells me EVERYTHING."

Tell us, Helen, is she the world's best mother, (as she thinks), or is she getting a snow job? — SON-BURNED

Dear Son-Burned: The woman who says, "My son tells me EVERYTHING!" has raised either a 1) Mama's sissy-boy; 2) Good liar; or, 3) Diplomat. If Number 3, he is simply omitting the items she's not quite ready for. She'll hear them bit-by-bit after he becomes a man and, man-like, starts reminiscing at family reunions.

... And she'll be so-o-o-o relieved she didn't know earlier! — H.

Dear Helen: Your husband Bob and you deserve your well-known "ten lashes with your typewriter ribbon" for implying "Xmas" is a nickname.

The capital letter "X" stands for the first two letters in the name "Christ" from the Greek alphabet. It is usually coupled with "P" which is the Greek symbol of "r." The symbol "XP" is a very common emblem in ecclesiastical art. "Xmas," is an authentic abbreviation. It has been used since the days when Christianity (Xnity) was more than a social inconvenience. — SMARTER THAN YOU.

Dear STY: Ten lashes duly delivered. But I STILL say even though the Greeks had a symbol for it, "Christ" should not be abbreviated either in writing or in our daily lives! — H.

Dear Helen: I don't like to interfere, but our sweet, easygoing, kindhearted daughter seems so mixed up these days. She has been going with a boy who cuts her down at every opportunity. In the year that they've been dating, he has:

1. Told her he wouldn't take her out to dinner on prom night because she's "too fat already." (She is about five pounds over normal weight.)

2. Stood her up repeatedly, always with some flimsy excuse.

3. Been late more than he's been early.

4. Never dressed in a suit or sport jacket, except on prom night — but always takes her out in the clothes he wears at school — a little on the wild side. (He has other clothes)

5. Eaten more meals from our refrigerator than he has treated her to elsewhere. In fact, he's never taken her out to eat — the reason always "You're too fat."

6. Spent practically nothing on her — and he has the money.

7. Browned her until she no longer has any self-confidence. I don't know whether she really cares for him or is afraid of him. Should I just wait, or should I be a mean, tough mother and tell him, "Get lost!"? — WORRIED MOM

Dear Mom: You should be a sympathetic, understanding mother, and let your daughter know she can talk it out with you until she straightens out her thinking. Sometimes in our eagerness not to interfere, we don't give our children enough support when they need it. I imagine she realizes she has a lemon but isn't sure how to get rid of him. Without being bossy — tell her! — H.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL OF ALL LYRIC DRAMAS...

Television and Radio

NEW YORK (AP) — Television, often a bit drab and predictable, proves it can be a pretty exciting medium, too.

In a three-day period it carried two of its greatest actresses working in graceful complement to each other as well as one of Broadway's classic musical comedies with the queen of the musical stage in her original role.

The NBC treats started with Friday night's "Anastasia" with Julie Harris and Lynn Fontanne. The 90 minute drama, adapted for television, suffered considerable in passage. The viewer was never given enough time to become really acquainted with either the troubled girl who agreed to pose as the Russian czar's daughter — Miss Harris — or the dowager empress portrayed so movingly by Miss Fontanne.

But the structure—even the workings of the plot to steal the imperial fortune if the old empress could be persuaded to accept the girl as a long lost granddaughter—was almost unimportant. The performances of the two fine actresses was the relations man who wanted to romanticize Smith's voyage to the New World.

In any event, Smith did nothing to dispel the story and actually came to enjoy his reputation as a living example of Indian compassion.

So far as the rest of the travel service version of the story goes, Pocahontas died of smallpox in England on March 10, 1617 and was buried in the graveyard at Gravesend Church in London.

The church underwent renovation in the 19th century and some of the headstones got mixed up. So the exact location of the grave remains a mystery.

Pocahontas Really Was a Bigamist

by JEAN HELLER

NEW YORK (AP) — Pocahontas, that beautiful Indian princess of American folklore, was a bigamist.

Not only that, she had enough allies to do credit to a confidence man. Pocahontas means "playful one."

And contrary to popular belief and the history books, she did not save Capt. John Smith's life. All this disillusioning information comes from the U.S. Travel Service, a division of the U.S. Department of Commerce, in an attempt to create interest in British-American tourism on the 350th anniversary of the Indian princess' death.

But, publicity gimmick or not, it appears that Pocahontas wasn't all she's cracked up to be.

The travel service said it found that when Pocahontas married John Rolfe, she hadn't divorced her Algonquin Indian husband — and never did.

She was baptized, and settlers felt there was no need for her to be divorced from a man they considered a heathen.

Pocahontas was called Pocahontas only in history books. Indians called her Matoaka, those present at her baptism called her Rebecca, and members of King James' court, smitten by the Indian lady, called her Lady Rebecca.

Although Smith knew Pocahontas, the travel service said, the rest of the story about their relationship was strictly the dream of a 17th century public

Rangers Get Title in Hockey Loop

The celebration was short-lived after the New York Rangers clinched their first National Hockey League playoff berth in five years with a 3-1 victory over Boston Sunday night.

"I told them 'nice job,'" said General Manager Coach Emile Francis, "and don't forget, practice Tuesday."

The victory halted a nine-game winless string for the Rangers and kept them in a second-place tie with Toronto, which capped an amazing week-end with a 6-5 victory over Detroit. In Sunday's other game, Chicago scored a pair of third-period goals for a 4-4 tie with Montreal.

Saturday, Toronto, bombed Chicago, 5-3. Boston, dropped Detroit 5-3 and Montreal topped New York 4-2.

The Rangers will be making their first trip to the playoffs since 1962 and although Francis was happy to wrap up the berth, he made it clear that New York had plenty of work ahead in the playoffs.

The team started its comeback with four goals in the third period against Detroit, and Philadelphia scored goal of the game in the final three minutes of play.

Philadelphia scored two first period goals, and set 4-1 in the first period before falling.

Saturday night, the Leafs were victims of Bobby Hull's goal — the third time the Golden Goal has been scored on that plateau. Toronto took an early three-goal lead but was bundled with five second-period goals to beat the Black Hawks.

The weekend sweep gave Toronto an 11-3-3 record since snapping its nearly disastrous 10-game losing streak.

Hull scored his 51st goal Sunday, moving within three of the NHL record he set last year, as the Hawks rallied to the Montreal Henri Richard had the intergoal hat trick for the fourth-place Canadiens, who fell two points back of New York and Toronto.

Magnolia Wins Golf Tourney

By RALPH ROUNTON

The Magnolia Panthers, led by balanced scoring took first place in the 4AA pre-district golf meet, held Saturday afternoon at Magnolia Country Club.

With the home-course advantage taken wholly into effect, the Magnolia golfers dethroned previously unbeaten Camden, after trailing slightly throughout the first nine holes. The Hope Bobcats finished a close third on the windy day.

Magnolia posted a 337 to lead the four-man competition. Camden trailed with a 339 and Hope came in with a 352. Arkadelphia had a 435, and a two-man Crosssett team posted a 196 to place fifth.

Medalists for the event were Sid Moore of Magnolia and Tommy Green of Camden, each firing 82's. Lee Fenwick of Hope trailed closely with an 83.

The Hope golfsters had a fairly rough time in this, their first match. Composed of Lee Fenwick, Fred Ellis, Ralph Rounton, and Danny Reyenga, the team continues to show progress. Their next match will be against Magnolia, as the Hope boys will travel there Thursday afternoon.

Lewis Says UCLA Still Could Fall

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer Guy Lewis still thinks UCLA is headed for a fall, but the Houston basketball coach isn't sure his Cougars are mean enough to push the Bruins off their summit perch.

"We lack the killer instinct, and I don't know if that will be fatal against UCLA or not," Lewis said Sunday as the Cougars began preparing for their NCAA tournament date with the unbeaten, top-ranked Bruins Friday night.

The second half of the semifinals doubleheader at Louisville, Ky., pits North Carolina's slick young Tar Heels against surprising Dayton.

Lewis, who predicted UCLA "will get beat" before his club earned the task of confronting the Bruins and 7-foot-1 Lew Alcindor, could promise only one thing Sunday: Houston won't settle for a standoff.

"I haven't decided how we'll play them," he said, "but we definitely won't try any control game on them. We don't even practice a delay. We think we have enough talent to get the ball in the hole against any team."

Elvin (Big E) Hayes heads Houston's talent parade and Lewis hopes the 6-foot-8 pivotman, whose 31 points triggered the Cougars' 83-75 victory over Southern Methodist in last Saturday night's NCAA Midwest regional final, will prove the Big Equalizer against UCLA prodigy Alcindor.

Big Lew poured in 38 points as the Bruins ousted University of Pacific 80-64 in the Far West regional for their 28th straight victory.

"Hayes is even greater this season because he has confidence in his shooting, from anywhere on the court," Lewis said. "He really took charge in the closing minutes against SMU."

The Houston All-America scored 20 points in the second half, most of them from outside, to offset a furious SMU rally that wiped out a 14-point deficit.

The Mustangs tied the score 72-72 with a 15-3 burst, but Hayes' basket with 1:57 remaining sent Houston ahead 76-73 and the nationally seventh-ranked Cougars hung on for their 24th victory in 27 starts.

Fourth-ranked North Carolina, 26-4, gained the semifinals by whipping No. 9 Boston College 96-80 behind Bob Lewis' 31 points in the East regional and unranked Dayton, 24-5, ousted Virginia Tech in overtime 71-66 for the Mid East crown.

Southern Illinois, the nation's No. 1 college division team, capped an impressive bid for big-time recognition by capturing the National Invitation Tournament title at New York with a 71-66 triumph over Marquette. The victory was the 19th in a row for the Salukis, who topped nine major opponents.

In the NIT consolation game, Rutgers' Bob Lloyd tossed in 44 points for a four-game total of 129, breaking the tournament record of 124 set by Maurice Stokes of St. Francis, Pa., 12 years ago, as the Scarlet Knights routed past Marshall, W.Va., 59-7.

Clay Plans
Workout

NEW YORK (AP) — Cassius Clay says he will have a secret workout today to wind up his training for his title defense against Zora Folley at Madison Square Garden Wednesday night.

According to the announcement from Clay's camp, the unbeaten champion wants another drill to further prepare for Folley's left hook to the body.

Clay, a 5-1 favorite, needs a secret workout as much as a billion dollar loan.

The 25-year-old king of the heavyweights has age, weight, height and speed going for him against the methodical, plodding, cautious 34-year-old challenger from Chandler, Ariz.

For a change the champion hasn't predicted the round he expects to end the scheduled 15-rounders.

Clay says his Wednesday fight could be his last fight for a longtime.

Apparently, the heavyweight champion receives daily bulletins from his attorneys on the status of his legal battle to stay an order for induction in the Army on April 11.

Sunday night, at the 42nd annual dinner of the Boxing Writers Association, the 25-year-old champion said "that due to some problems, this could be my last fight."

He did not elaborate.

But only a few days ago, he implied that he would rather go to jail "for his beliefs" than go into the army.

The BWA's main award, the Fighter of the Year trophy, went to light heavyweight champion Dick Tiger who could not get here from Nigeria to attend the dinner.

were Princeton, which downed St. John's, N.Y., 76-58; Indiana, which beat Tennessee 51-44; Kansas, which got past disappointing Louisville 70-66 and Texas Western, which topped Wyoming 65-47.

On Saturday, Dr. Henry lost his final round in an attempt to show cause why the coaches should not be fired. The faculty representatives told Illinois to fire the coaches by Tuesday or face indefinite suspension from the conference.

The scandal broke in December when assistant athletic director Mel Brewer, bypassed for the athletic directorship which had opened with the Dec. 1 resignation of Doug Mills, revealed to Dr. Henry the existence of the fund.

Dr. Henry took the matter to the Big Ten and the athletic directors met and decided Illinois must fire the three or show cause why its membership should not be suspended or terminated.

Illinois appealed on March 3 to the faculty representatives who came to the same decision as that of the athletic directors. Illinois' "show cause" appeal Saturday also failed and the faculty group issued its Tuesday-or-else mandate.

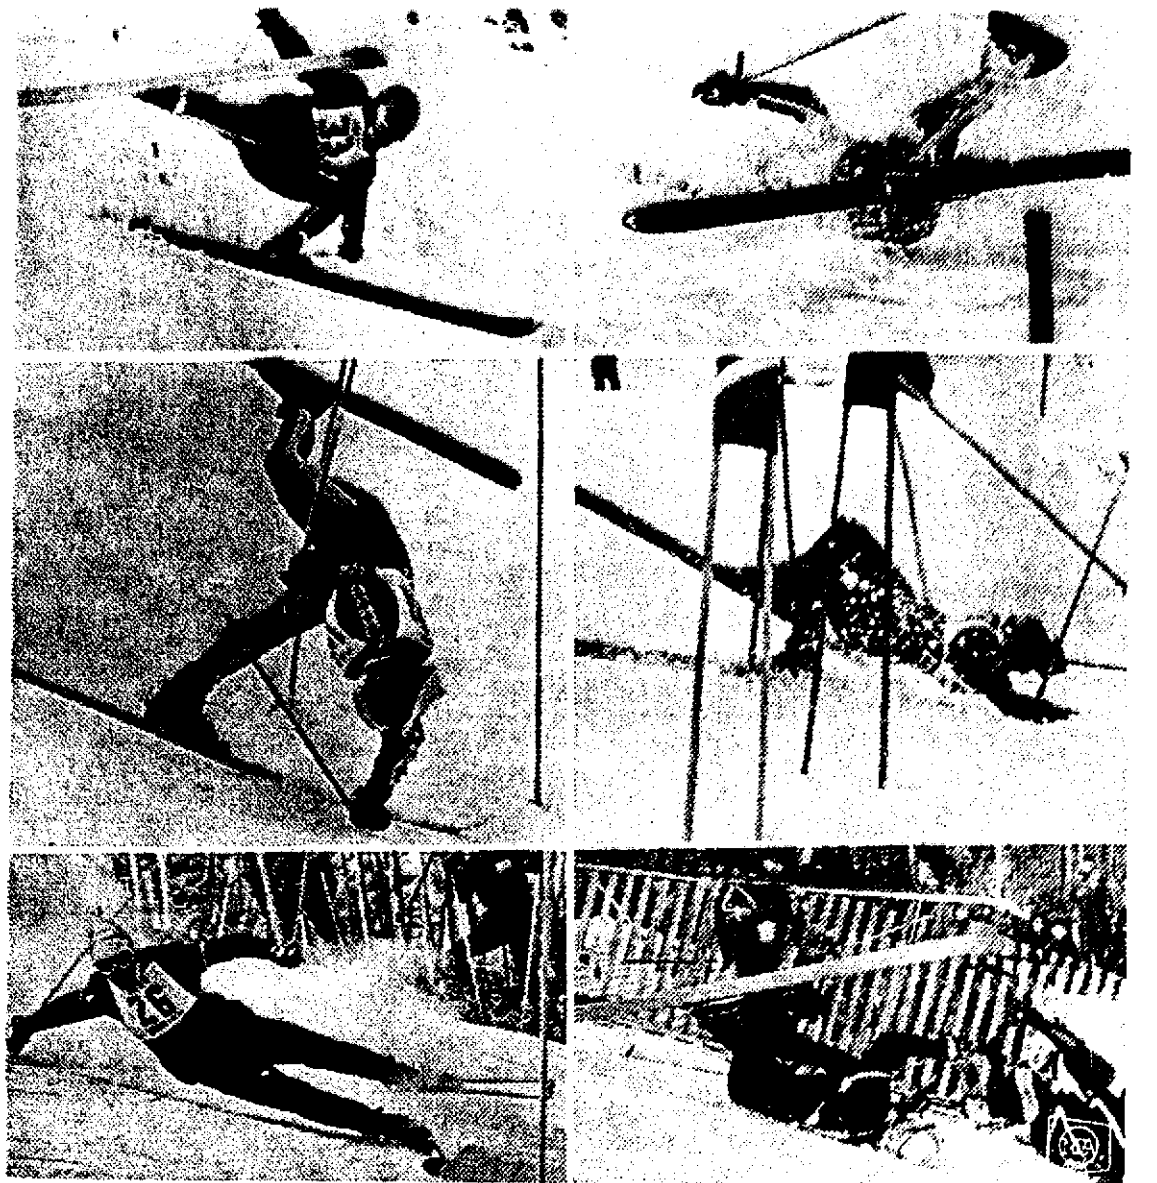

In accepting the resignations, Dr. Henry said: "The Board of Directors of the Athletic Association have recommended and I have approved the honoring of existing contracts with the coaches which will terminate Aug. 31, 1967. Their faculty status in the College of Physical Education (part time assignments) is not affected."

Elliott, 42, has been at Illinois seven years, Combes, 51, concluded his 20th season at Illinois, and Braun, 50, has been Combes' assistant for 2 years.

The three coaches issued a joint statement Sunday in which they charged the 'Big Ten fired us.'

"It is apparent to everyone that the commissioner, athletic directors and faculty representatives of the Western Conference ('Big Ten') have 'fired us'. We are therefore reluctantly stepping down from our respective coaching responsibilities at this time rather than to allow the conference to unjustly force the University of Illinois to act on an impossible situation. We emphatically believe that the final decision in this matter must be made by the conference rather than the University and consider the announcement of March 13, 1967, as the final decision."

In Chicago, Commissioner Reed refused to comment on the resignations other than to GRAVITY, ACCORDING to Webster, is "that force which tends to draw all bodies toward the center of the earth," which happens to be the direction these skiers were headed in when caught by the camera. Be it the one-ski approach (top photos) or the head-down hurdle (center) or the sideways slide, the results were the same: what went up came down—with a bang.

3 Illinois Coaches Quit Jobs

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Illinois' three scandal-involved coaches reluctantly resigned Sunday, 24 hours after the Big Ten issued an ultimatum that they be fired or the university face indefinite suspension from the conference.

The action by football Coach Pete Elliott, basketball Coach Harry Combes and assistant Howie Braun ended a three-month ordeal stemming from a $21,000 athletic slush fund.

Dr. David D. Henry, university president, who revealed the existence of the fund to the Big Ten and fought to the end to save the jobs of the coaches, accepted the resignations.

On Saturday, Dr. Henry lost his final round in an attempt to show cause why the coaches should not be fired. The faculty representatives told Illinois to fire the coaches by Tuesday or face indefinite suspension from the conference.

Dan Sikes Winner at Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)

— Dan Sikes has convinced his hometown friends that he is the city's best golfer, and now he would like to show officials of the prestige-packed Masters that he belongs in that tournament.

The 36-year-old Jacksonville lawyer bolstered his bid for an invitation to the Masters by winning the Jacksonville Open Sunday, and now ranks fourth among the contenders for two vacancies at the Augusta, Ga., tournament.

Sikes, $20,000 richer after winning the third tournament in his seven-year career as a pro, hopes to nail down a bid with top finishes in the Pensacola, Fla., and Greensboro, N.C., tournaments.

"My putting has really been good," Sikes said after taking the Jacksonville title by a stroke over 38-year-old Bill Collins, club pro at Purchase, N.Y.

Sikes' finishing 73 gave him a 72-hole total of 279.

Collins, 38-year-old ex-Marine trying to make a comeback on the tour, won $12,000 for his second-place 280 after a closing 67, five-under par.

Jim Colbert, in his second season on the tour, collected $6,250 for his third-place tie at 281 with Gay Brewer Jr.

Junior Miss Crazy About Those Hogs

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Rosemary Dunaway, a cheerleader from Little Rock High School who also likes to call the hogs, was picked America's 1967 Junior Miss here Saturday night.

Miss Dunaway, 17, said "Oooo Pig Soole" at the end of a pre-recorded talk that was broadcast on national television as each of the 12 finalists was named. Then, when she was announced as this year's Junior Miss, she said: "Hey, Razor-back!"

As anyone in Arkansas should know, she was talking about the University of Arkansas Razor-backs.

Miss Dunaway, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Forrest Dunaway, plans to become a speech therapist. Her father is an orthodontist. The parents, who were in Mobile, said they were thrilled and "knew all the time she'd win."

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller sent Miss Dunaway a telegram which said:

"Congratulations on your wonderful victory in the Junior Miss pageant. You will be an outstanding representative of your state. I know the people of Arkansas share with me a feeling of great pride in your accomplishment."

Miss Dunaway leaves today for New York City.

She spent Sunday relaxing, saying farewell to her 49 competitors in the pageant, and answering questions about almost everything.

The 17-year-old charmer said she was "still floating three feet above the floor," after realizing she had been named Miss Junior Miss.

Pageant officials said some 50,000 girls took part in the local, state and national competition to find the ideal teenage girl.

Fielding questions from reporters, she said she "mostly dates around," with regards to boys; loves to ride her pet quarterhorse named Peaches.

She picks her clothes "to follow the styles, with lots of bright things," and prefers French provincial furniture.

She would "adore" being an airline hostess but thinks her 5-foot, 2-inch height makes her too small; would like to travel overseas to represent the American teenage girl; will not try now to win the "Miss America title."

"No!" she said. "This has been enough to last a lifetime."

Miss Dunaway said she wants to attend Sweet Briar College near Lynchburg, Va., with the $11,000 in scholarships won in the pageant. Her admission there is pending, she said.

Crack Cong Unit Smashed by Americans

By JOHN T. WHEELER

BAU BANG, Vietnam (AP) — Two crack Viet Cong battalions hurled themselves at a smaller, untried American armored unit today but were smashed in a dazzling display of American firepower and maneuverability. Only three Americans were killed, but the enemy left 223 bodies on the battlefield.

One senior American commander said the Viet Cong may have had more than 800 dead and wounded.

The estimated 750 Communists apparently gambled on a lightning strike that would quickly overrun the 300 Americans and their armor and artillery position 31 miles north of Saigon. But a mass grave dug by a bulldozer was the fate of scores who rushed the U.S. 9th Division positions moments after a mortar attack lifted.

The Communists screamed "Americans die" and Vietnamese battle cries as they streamed out of the nearby woods. American commanders shouted commands as their men fought like pioneers of a frontier wagon train under Indian attack. U.S. planes and ground reinforcements turned the tide.

The enemy drove to within 15 yards of the American firing line before bullets, bombs and artillery crushed the attack. They destroyed two armored personnel carriers, damaged six others, hit six tanks, none seriously, and shot down a U.S. jet bomber.

Thirty-one Americans were wounded, nine of them in the two personnel carriers gutted by fire. A 10th man died when he was unable to pull himself from his flaming vehicle before ammunition inside began exploding.

"He was screaming horribly," one tanker said.

Others said the cries of other American wounded filled the night air during the first confusing minutes. Nearly all of the wounded were hit in the first few minutes by the mortar fire.

The mortar attack opened at 12:40 a.m., and by 1:20 a.m. the Viet Cong infantry was attacking. The climax came about 2 a.m. when American jets appeared overhead and two more troops of armor came to the rescue.

The Air Force, using deadly antipersonnel bomblet clusters, continued hammering the enemy around the American position and later along jungle escape routes until noon.

More Members Added to Chamber List

The membership committee of the Chamber of Commerce under the direction of Benny Coleman, Chairman, has been busily engaged for the past few weeks contacting prospective new members and reactivating some former members of the Chamber of Commerce. Working with Mr. Coleman are the following committee members: Calvin Smith, Bobby Joe Lee, Jim Lockhart, Harry Cagle and Hulien White.

To date the following new members have been added to the membership list: Hempstead Manufacturing Company, Dr. Charles Johnson, John Lester, Morgan & Lindsey Store in the Shopping Center, J. W. Rowe, Southern Grain & Elevator Company, Streech Realty Company, The Tire Center, E. L. White Motor Company, K. Dale Wood, and Hope Iron & Metal Company. Those former members are: Anthony Hardwood Lumber Company, Bramlett Oil Company, City Service Station, Cobb Radio & Television, Carrett Ready Mix Concrete Company, and Hope Transfer & Storage Company.

"We appreciate the fine cooperation from these businessmen," said Mr. Coleman, "and we hope to continue to bring in more new and former members throughout the year."

nists hauled from the battle field by their comrades were up to a foot wide and stretched out from the American positions by the scores like wheel spokes.

Court Refuses to Hear a Draft Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused today by an 8-1 vote to review the conviction of a Brooklyn man who refused to report for induction on the claim that the war in Vietnam violates various international treaties.

Dissenting Justice William O. Douglas said David Henry Mitchell III was entitled to a hearing to determine whether the war is a "war of aggression" within the meaning of the 1945 Treaty of London.

"I intimate no opinion on the merits" of the claims made by Mitchell, Douglas said, but contended the court should have heard his appeal because the questions he raised are recurring ones "in present-day selective service cases."

The majority made no comment in rejecting Mitchell's appeal.

The 24-year-old bookstore clerk was convicted last year in U.S. District Court in Hartford, Conn., of "knowingly and willfully" failing to report for induction. He was sentenced to up to five years in federal prison.

Accidents Claim Lives of Five

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Five persons died in Arkansas traffic accidents over the weekend between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday, an Associated Press count showed today.

Larry Curtis, 17, of Des Arc died Sunday of injuries he received Saturday night when his car struck the rear of a truck about three miles west of Cotton Plant on Arkansas 39.

Sylvia Anne Hampton, 17, of near Harrison, was killed Saturday night when the car in which she was riding left U.S. 65 three miles north of Harrison and rammed into a utility pole.

Two persons were killed Saturday in a two-car collision on Arkansas 14 about 13 miles southeast of Newport near the Amagon community.

State Police identified the victims as Edsel Warren Smith, 44, of Fisher, and Roger L. Blaylock, 38, of Balch in Jackson County.

Jerry Boyd, 42, of Humphrey was dead on arrival at a Pine Bluff hospital Saturday after his car struck a bridge railing off U.S. 79 about 2.7 miles north of Wabbaseka.

Moss Quits Welfare for Federal Job

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arkansas Welfare Commissioner A. J. (Red) Moss has been named director of the Little Rock insurance office of the Federal Housing Administration.

Moss will succeed Gailther C. Johnston, who retires April 8. Announcement of Moss' new post was made here Sunday by P. N. Brownstein, assistant secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Browning said Moss will be responsible for FHA mortgage and loan insurance operations in Arkansas.

Allergies — Your Personal Poisons Not Housewife's Fault, Every Home Has Dust

By Allergy Foundation of America
(Distributed by NEA Special Services)

If the doctor tells you that you have a case of "allergic rhinitis," don't faint. It means inflammation of the nasal passages due to allergic causes. In other words, a constant stuffed-up nose. This is one of the common allergies. House dust is to blame.

It isn't that the wife can't qualify as a good housekeeper. Using the entire arsenal of modern cleaning devices, with all the time in the world, she couldn't rid the house of all its dust.

It takes a lab's ingenuity to design a dust-free ROOM. A crazy mixture of who-knows-what goes into dust. One recipe, if you were making it up, would include: Carpet fibers, cement crumbs from basement, furniture upholstery particles, tiny molecules of plaster, insulation, paint, wallpaper, cigarette smoke, cooking fumes, fireplace ashes, kitchen spices and cosmetics. Add dog or cat dander, lint from blankets, sheets, clothing and toys. Add a pinch of dirt brought in by shoes, some mold and bacteria and you've got it.

These are only some of the supposedly harmless things we come into contact with. The whole potpourri is stirred up and distributed to every corner of the most carefully kept homes by our heating systems, some of which could not have been more efficiently designed to do this job.

Then too, there's a lowering of humidity when the house is closed, itself a prominent name in the allergy detective's suspect book.

Rhinitis is one of the milder reactions to house dust. Dust can be considered a factor in any respiratory difficulty until ruled out. In chronic cases of asthma and other more serious forms,

THE WELL CHILD Disease Similar to Polio Attacks Mexican Children

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D. Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

A new paralytic disease that closely resembles poliomyelitis has been observed in children in Mexico. It is caused by an unidentified virus but careful tests have shown that it is not a poliovirus. The mode of transmission is not known but the cases seen have been from widely separated points. It cannot, therefore, be considered an epidemic disease.

The young victims may be paralyzed in one or all their limbs and, when the respiratory muscles are affected, the children must be placed in an iron lung. No specific treatment is known. Although the death rate from this disease is higher than that of poliomyelitis, if the victim survives the acute phase he slowly but surely makes a complete recovery. This is not true of polio.

Although as yet no cases of this disease have been reported in this country, some cases reported as polio in children who have had the full series of polio vaccinations may be due to the new disease. In any event, cases may be expected in areas bordering on Mexico.

Q—My 6-year-old son is 48 inches tall and weighs 50 pounds. He has a good appetite and eats well. Do you think he is underweight? If so, what should I do to correct this?

A—Since your son is of average weight for his age but above average height, his build would be described as slender. This may be a hereditary trait. In any case, it is preferable to being overweight. If your son is otherwise healthy, I would see that he is offered plenty of nourishing food but would not try to force-feed him. He will probably fill out when he reaches adolescence but, if he becomes more underweight for his age than he is now, you might try to get him to keeps the bidding lower.

Today's hand illustrates that old advantage. South is able to bid his hearts three times without going past four hearts. He has a sound positive response but is afraid of a misfit.

After South's third bid, hearts, North realizes that there is sufficient heart support and goes into Blackwood.

In his first Blue Book, the late Ely Culbertson described the forcing two bid with the negative two no-trump response.

While Ely did not invent this bid, actually it was invented by Oswald Jacoby and Waldemar von Zedtwitz with a lot of help from Ted Lightner, he did make it an integral part of the Culbertson system and the bid is still used by practically all the bridge-playing public.

There is one small group which does not use it. That group is composed of the top players. These top players use two clubs as their strongest forcing bid and play the others either as specialized strong bids or weak bids.

The two club bid has three distinct advantages over regular two bids. It eliminates the negative two no-trump response so that the weak hand does not become the no-trump declarer. It releases the other two bids for other purposes and on many occasions it keeps the bidding lower.

Today's hand illustrates this third advantage. South is able to bid his hearts three times without going past four hearts. He has a sound positive response but is afraid of a misfit.

After South's third bid of hearts, North realizes that his ace is sufficient heart support and goes into Blackwood. Of course, South shows no aces but North's five no-trump not only asks for kings but also guarantees the four aces. South's bid of seven hearts is based on this knowledge plus the fact that he is sure that his king of clubs will be a very valuable card.

If North had opened with two spades the partnership might still reach the grand slam. However, they would lose one early round of bidding because South would be responding at the three level.

Q—The bidding has been:
West North East South
1 ♠ Pass 2 ♠
Pass 3 ♠ Pass
You, South, hold:
♠ J 2 ♥ A K 6 5 ♦ 4 3 2 ♣ A Q 8 2
What do you do?
A—Bid four no-trump. You plan to go to a slam but there is one chance in a million that your partner doesn't hold an ace. Blackwood guards against this possibility.

Hope Community TV Answers Questions on Cable Television

The staff of Hope Community TV, Inc., has completed this series of questions and answers to explain some of the operations of the Cable TV system prior to their opening in Hope some time next month.

Q. Who is Hope Community TV, Inc. and what is Cable TV?

A. Hope Community TV, Inc. is an Arkansas corporation incorporated in Hope for the express purpose of designing, building and operating a master antenna television receiving service. Hope Community TV, Inc., is franchised by the City of Hope to provide this service.

Cable TV represents a giant master antenna service for the reception of television signals providing the best possible reception, picture quality, variety, service, and convenience with a large selection of channels and programs. FM radio, and twenty-four hour local time and weather service will also be provided.

Cable TV systems are serving over 3 million people in the nation from over 1,800 systems. Many are located in Arkansas.

Community Antenna systems in this area are located in Camden, Prescott, Magnolia, El Dorado, Russellville, and other nearby cities.

Q. What are some of the benefits to me?

A. To mention but a few, Cable TV provides you with Eight channels of continuously reliable TV reception without worry about your home antennas or interference. It provides you with maximum programming from multiple sources to give you freedom of choice. Increased programming will be received from Arkansas and Louisiana stations. Cable TV means continuous free service of the signal you receive at home. It means that your roof-top antenna is eliminated—You have no more worries about weather, electrical interferences, antenna maintenance, etc. Cable TV means that FM radio will be brought into every subscriber's home on his own TV set.

Q. How dependable is Cable TV?

A. Cable TV can be compared to your local utility service. With the monthly service charge you receive full 24-hour free service for as long as you are on the Cable. Hope Community TV, Inc. engineers will conduct a full time maintenance program to insure that all equipment operates in an optimum condition and that receiving signals remain constant to your receiver. Also, our staff will constantly monitor the signal to insure the best in picture quality.

Q. How does Cable TV work?

A. Televisions signals are received at the antenna complex located off the Experiment Station Road. From this point the signal is provided throughout the city by means of coaxial cable attached to utility poles. The signal is kept constant by ream-plifying or "boosting" the signal at certain intervals. This is done by mainline trunk amplifiers. Different amplifiers may serve different purposes, but they are installed for one purpose—To keep the signal as good as it was when it left the antenna site. Using these amplifiers, it is possible to maintain a strong signal, perfectly balanced for all the subscribers on the system, and to guarantee picture uniformity at all points on the cable.

Q. Will color reception be improved?

A. Viewing of good Color TV depends on the transmitting station, the color set adjustment, and most important, the reception of a strong uniform signal. While it is possible to receive color reception on home antennas, the distance to the station and the antenna height often cause the color to vary. With Cable TV the color and black and white signals are strengthened at the tower before being routed to subscribers homes. Also, the signals are "boosted" as they travel throughout Hope, thus assuring customers of a near-perfect picture level. Subscribers will receive color in perfect register with the cable. This non-varying signal insures better color. Also, the additional channels available on the TV Cable increase the number of color shows and the color viewing hours.

Q. Will the picture be clear and of good quality on the TV Cable?

A. CATV systems are almost as old as television itself, and the special electronic equipment used in your Hope Cable TV system is of the very latest transistorized design and has been engineered and manufactured by one of the leading firms in the field. Ameco, Inc. has constructed and provided all equipment used throughout the system. The cable will provide continuous, reliable, near-perfect reception on all channels.

Q. Can I connect more than one TV set to the cable?

A. Yes. We have special splitter units that allow additional tap-offs in your house for other TV sets. Using these units, only one wire is brought to the house from the main cable. All TVs connected to the cable can be operated at the same time.

Q. Does Hope Community TV, Inc. repair and sell TV sets?

A. No. Our business is to provide Hope with top-notch TV signals using our tower and coaxial cables. We will service and maintain all of our system up to and including the end of the cable on your TV set free—Free. Servicing of TV sets is a specialized field and in Hope you have some of the finest service shops anywhere. Servicing should be done by your qualified repairman. Should you desire to buy a new set, many new models are available.

Q. Must I sign a contract for a certain period of time when I subscribe?

A. No. You are in no way obligated to keep your Cable TV connection for any specific period of time. You pay a small monthly service charge in advance. If you desire to discontinue during the month you have paid, we will refund a pro-rata portion of the service charge which you have not used. Hope Community TV, Inc.'s goal is to provide you, the subscriber with good television viewing and complete satisfaction, not contracts.

Q. What channels will I receive when I connect to the cable?

A. Initially you will receive Eight TV channels and FM Radio plus a local time and weather channel on your TV set.

Services Include:
Channel 2, KETS Conway
Channel 3, KTBS Shreveport
Channel 4, KARK Little Rock
Channel 5, Local time & Weather

Channel 6, KATB Shreveport - Texarkana
Channel 7 - Pine Bluff
Channel 7 - KATV Pine Bluff
Channel 10 - KTVE El Dorado
Channel 11 - KTHV Little Rock
Channel 12 - KSLA Shreveport
Stations will be afforded program non-duplication protection as requested.

Q. How much will it cost to be a Cable Subscriber?

A. The cost works out to less than 17 cents a day that's less than two cents per channel.

Southern Illinois Is Meet Winner

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The gleam in Walt Frazier's eye is as bright as his basketball future when Southern Illinois' 6-foot-3 sparkplug talks about his 12-pound protegee.

"My son will be four weeks old tomorrow," Frazier said after pacing the Salukis to the National Invitation Tournament championship last Saturday. "He weighed eight pounds, nine ounces when he was born — but the last time I checked he was up to 12 pounds."

"He might be a football player. I'll just let him make his own decision."

Whatever course Walt Frazier III chooses to follow in time to come, he figures prominently in Walt Frazier II's plans for the immediate future.

The Southern Illinois star, who earned the NIT's Most Valuable Player Award with 21 points, 11 rebounds and five assists in the Salukis' 71-56 conquest of Marquette for the title, must decide soon whether to play next season as a collegian or a professional.

Frazier, a junior, is eligible for next month's National Basketball Association draft because his college class graduates this year. The Atlanta native sat out the 1965-66 season because of scholastic difficulties. But he has come back to lead the Salukis to their finest season ever (24-2) and gain Little All-America honors.

Dr. Fager Slated for First Start

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer
Dr. Fager, the last of the more prominent nominees for the Kentucky Derby to go to the post this year, is scheduled to make his first start as a 3-year-old in the $25,000 Bay Shore at Aqueduct Saturday.

The seasonal debut of the Tartan Stable colt, runner-up to Successor for the two-year-old championship last year, highlights the national weekend racing program along with the $100,000 Gulfstream Park Handicap at the Florida track.

Dr. Fager, beaten last year only by Successor in the Champagne, may encounter a stern foe in the seven furlongs of the Bay Shore. Damascus, an impressive winner at Pimlico March 11 in his first start of the year, also may go to the post.

Mrs. Edith Bancroft's colt, winner of the Remsen last year, is regarded by many as a major threat in the Derby at Churchill Downs.

Ask The Fare, beaten by Relected Glory in the Flamingo, regained some Derby prestige by beating Diplomat Way by a head and Grand Premiere by half a length in the $54,550 Louisiana Derby at the Fair Grounds in New Orleans last Saturday. Ask The Fare ran the 1 1/4 miles in 1:50 and paid $23.60.

In Reality, Great Power, Gentleman James, Cool Reception and Reason To Hall are among other Derby hopefuls expected to compete in the Fountain of Youth Stakes at Gulfstream Park Wednesday in the top mid-week offering. The race is a stepping stone to the Florida Derby April 1.

The Gulfstream Park Handicap at 1 1/4 miles may bring together a brilliant field. Prefect, winner of the Santa Anita Handicap, and Ring Twice, winner of the Widener Handicap, in addition to Amberoid, winner of the Belmont Stakes last year, Quintia, winner of the John B. Campbell Memorial at Bowie, and Francis U., winner of the Donn Handicap are likely to start.

Other features this Saturday include the $25,000 City of Baltimore Handicap at Pimlico in which Spring Double and Sub Call are likely starters, and the Eastbay Handicap at Golden Gate Fields, a prep for the California Derby.

Origin of more than 3,000 different chemicals can be traced to petroleum or natural gas.

We Called Shot on Investment Tax Credit

When the Johnson administration pushed through Congress last fall a bill suspending the 7 per cent tax credit and accelerated depreciation for manufacturing firms purchasing new equipment we denounced it as poor public policy and suggested that the certain slowdown in heavy industry would compel the administration to reverse its unwise action.

We called the shot—for this is precisely what has happened. Although the tax credit and accelerated depreciation were supposed to be suspended for 18 months Washington has been compelled to cancel the deal after less than 9 months and now plans to restore this industrial incentive program by July 1. The restoration bill went through the House last week by the thundering vote of 386 to 2 and final enactment by the Senate is certain.

Just as we had predicted last fall the suspension of the tax credit and accelerated depreciation was followed by a slowdown in the plants manufacturing machinery for industry. The owners of industry simply weren't going to buy anything but the most necessary machines when their competitors had been given a tax break now denied to themselves, and denied also the accelerated depreciation schedule which would help them meet payments due for new machinery.

The whole purpose of the tax incentive program—to bolster employment in the heavy tool- and machine-building industries—had been defeated; and the administration and Congress had no option but to quickly reverse themselves and reinstate the credits. Heavy industry has already responded favorably.

Reviewing what this column reported at the time of the suspension last fall I should point out that while the tax credit did amount to a tax cut of 7 per cent of the value of new machinery purchased, the more important feature was the right to take depreciation at an accelerated rate—which feature didn't change the tax picture at all.

A plant's depreciation charge represents tax-free money that can be used to meet serial payments for new equipment. Under the accelerated depreciation schedule this tax-free money is doubled in the first half of the life of the schedule, but cut in half on the latter part of the schedule—so that the total allowable depreciation is unchanged. There is no tax benefit in this—but a plant is given more money with which to meet machinery payments at the beginning, but depreciation declines and taxes increase in the later years when the machinery is paid out. It is no tax cut—merely a rearrangement of taxes, lighter to begin with, heavier later on.

As the local public might well guess, it was this accelerated depreciation schedule which enabled The Star to sell off its old printing plan and install the new offset system. We had the resources to pay for everything except the big press, a major debt to be financed through the manufacturer. Our accelerated depreciation schedule showed that depreciation money would finish paying for the press even if the newspaper didn't earn a dime—heavy taxes being delayed until after the press was fully owned. So we went ahead with our machinery program and completed it in 1965-66. The same thing happened with thousands of progressive plants all over the country—and the trend will be resumed now that the industrial incentive program is being restored.

The effect of the 7 per cent tax credit, while an actual tax cut, is different between individuals and businesses. A personal tax cut leaves the individual with more money to spend personally. But the corporate tax credit is more a discount on equipment prices than a tax saving. Since you get a 7 per cent credit on everything you buy you simply use the extra money to buy more or larger machines; employment benefits—and the government comes out O. K. because there are more employed people on whom to collect personal taxes.

And there is a good break for personal income tax payers in all this. For the same government that posts a tax incentive

Destined for Trial, Shaw III

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Clay L. Shaw, destined for trial on a charge of conspiring to assassinate President John F. Kennedy, rested in a hospital bed today.

Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison, who contends that a conspiracy in New Orleans led to the murder of President Kennedy in Dallas, was expected to file a bill of information against Shaw this week.

The bill is but a technical step in the legal procedure toward bringing Shaw to trial.

No trial date has been set for Shaw, 54, a decorated World War II Army major and retired business leader. Shaw entered Southern Baptist Hospital here Saturday. His attorneys said it was solely "for rest and relaxation."

Garrison's case against Shaw came out last week in the preliminary hearing, when a dope addict and an insurance salesman placed Shaw with Lee Harvey Oswald weeks before the president's death.

Perry Russo, 25, a Baton Rouge insurance salesman, testified he attended a party at which he says he heard Shaw, who was introduced to him as "Clem Bertrand," plot with Oswald and David W. Ferrie to slay Kennedy.

Vernon Bundy Jr., 29, a stocky, paroled drug addict, told the court he was preparing a shot of heroin when he saw Shaw meet Oswald at the Lake Pontchartrain seawall and pass over "what looked like a wad of money."

Teachers Want a Flat $500

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—One hundred and 16 members of the Classroom Teachers Association voted Saturday on whether they wanted a flat $500-a-year salary increase, or raises based on a formula which would emphasize equalization.

By a 72-44 vote, they favored the flat $500-a-year increase. The Arkansas Education Association's board of directors and the AEA legislative committee previously stated they favored the formula bill.

Teachers from rural districts joined with most superintendents in opposing the flat pay increase on the ground that under a formula bill they would be likely to get more money.

A ballot asking AEA members their preference has been included in an AEA publication.

Although Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller has signed the bill giving teachers flat $500 raises in each of the next two years, he said he prefers the formula method bill, which the Senate has passed and presumably will send back to the House when the Legislature reconvenes next week.

Landscaping Subject of Discussion

Many landscaping problems originate with soil and fertilization imbalance.

Hempstead County residents will have an opportunity to head discussion and demonstrations on "Soils—pH Ranges, Soil Testing, Fertilization, Lawns, Establishment and Maintenance." Training will be conducted Tuesday, March 21, in the Extension Office Conference Room from 1:15 p.m. till 3:00 p.m. Calvin Caldwell, County Extension Agent and Dwight Davis, Associate County Extension Agent, will instruct this lesson.

Training was organized from questions and requests made on problems faced by Hempstead County residents. Participants will learn ways recommended to correct soil acidity that provides desirable growing conditions for landscaping materials.

For business can't very well continue threatening to levy a surtax on personal income taxes. The Johnson administration insists it still means to do this—but Congress isn't about to permit it.

Court Ruling Frees Killer, Rapists and Police Are Handcuffed

By HAL COOPER

NEW YORK (AP)—Some admitted killers and rapists walk the nation's streets today because of a Supreme Court decision sharply limiting the use of confessions in trials.

Police and prosecutors say they are handcuffed.

State legislators talk of new laws to redress the balance of justice, but concede that such statutes might be declared by the highest court to be unconstitutional.

A presidential crime commission studied the problem and seven of its 19 members said the situation calls for amendment of the Constitution. A Senate Judiciary subcommittee studying the implications of the court's 5 to 4 decision last June 13 has received similar suggestions. But some lawyer witnesses opposed a constitutional amendment, saying a future court might soften the ruling.

Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark told a House Judiciary subcommittee he was against any such attempt to override the court.

"I doubt that anything approaching a case has been made for that at this time," said Clark.

Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, introduced in the House a bill authorizing the appointment of "masters of examination" to supervise interrogation of suspects by federal law enforcement agencies. He said it could serve as a model for state legislatures to consider in revising criminal codes.

"We must not be faced with the spectacle of the acknowledged criminal freed merely because a policeman is unable to guess how five judges of the Supreme Court will vote on a particular issue," said Taft.

Concern over the situation Wizard of Oz, Coming Here March 27

The Wizard of Oz, a musical adventure story, full of gaiety, fast-moving action, fun and fantasy is coming to Hope, on Monday, March 27th, sponsored by Hope Junior Auxiliary, and performed by the world-famous NICOLE MARIONETTES.

A delightful adaptation of the American Classic by Frank Baum, the NICOLE studios in New York City, in producing this play for the Marionette Stage, have created a theatrical gem!

All phases of this production including hand-carved, specially animated marionettes, colorful costumes, elaborate settings, fantastic stage effects and a tuneful musical score was coordinated to produce a rich and entertaining experience for children of all ages.

Master puppeteer, Nicholas Coppola heads a staff of artisans who carved the marionettes. Under his inspired supervision, no detail was spared in bringing to life the brightness and enduring charm of these well-loved characters of the Baum classic.

"The Silly Strawman," "The Cowardly Lion," "The Heartless Tin Man" and so many others.

Well-known scenic designer, William Pitkin, fresh from a string of Broadway successes has brought his considerable talent to this theatre medium. He based his designs for this production on the illustrations in the original OZ book, which were done in the style of Art Nouveau.

NICOLE MARIONETTES is fortunate to have as musical director, Bruce Haack, noted composer, who wrote a bright and lively musical score to accompany the dancing marionettes. Mr. Haack's new recording, "Dance, Sing and Listen" was chosen the "Best Record for Children" by one of the leading New York City Magazines. His work is highly endorsed by the New York City Board of Education.

The children of Hope, will not want to miss this fantasy filled with fun and surprises. Be sure to get your tickets for THE WIZARD OF OZ coming to Hope on Monday, March 27, 1967. Curtain time is 10:00 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. and the show will be given at Hope High School Aud.

came to a focus on Feb. 20 when Jose Suarez, 22, a New York factory worker, was set free despite his confession that he slew his wife and five children. Across the country, there have been many similar cases involving murder, robbery, rape or kidnapping.

Killed in Action in Vietnam

PFC. KENNETH ARNOLD

Pfc. Kenneth H. Arnold, 20, of Oklahoma City was killed in Vietnam by shrapnel through a surprise attack by the Viet Cong. Services were held Tuesday in Oklahoma City.

He was born in Hope and went to Oklahoma City in 1946 and was graduated from Southeast High School in 1964. He had been employed by the Allied Foods, Inc., before being drafted into the army in April, 1966. He was a member of Southwood Baptist Church.

He received basic training at Fort Bliss, Texas, and advanced training at Fort Polk, La. From there he went to Vietnam where he had served for two months. He was a member of the First Infantry Division, Company A.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Gladys Usery of Oklahoma City and uncle Walter Galloway of Venezuela, formerly of Hope and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Galloway of Hope.

Violence in Milk Squabble

CHICAGO (AP)—The fifth day of a 25-state milk holding action began today with farmers voicing confidence, milk producers drawing together in self defense, continued violence—and little evidence that prices were rising.

"We're going to hold until she breaks," said a Tennessee official of the National Farmers Organization, sponsoring group of the action to dry up milk supplies until prices paid to dairy farmers rise.

His words echoed those of NFO President Oren Lee Staley, who said at his Corning, Iowa, headquarters that the NFO members "are adopting the attitude, 'no price, no production.'"

In St. Louis, the president of the St. Louis Sanitary Milk Producers Association said producers should seek "cooperation, consolidation and outright merger" in the face of NFO efforts to create a milk shortage. Bullets pierced milk tanks, milk trucks were stopped and their cargoes drained, and milk supplies were polluted.

But, the only area where consumer prices were reported higher was Omaha, where prices were up two cents a quart in stores. But they had fallen two to three cents a quart during a price war several months ago and retailers declined to credit the holding action with the price increase.

LBJ Avows to Discuss Only Peace

By FRANK CORMIER

GUAM (AP)—President Johnson's avowed intent to focus his Guam conference on the works of peace clashed today into a call by Premier Nguyen Cao Ky for a sharp escalation of the Vietnam war.

Johnson also got a report from his own close advisers that the Communists are doing some escalating of their own.

At the first formal conference session, atop the highest hill on this damp tropical island, Ky in his opening public statement questioned whether the time had come for the United States to bomb Hanoi, block the harbor at Haiphong and expand the war into Laos and Cambodia.

The public expressions of such questions made it apparent that Ky thinks the United States should do all those things. But both Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, meeting with newsmen after the session, emphasized repeatedly that there was no discussion of escalation. Rusk contended that Ky raised his questions only in the context that Hanoi is unwilling to seek peace.

However, both McNamara and Gen. William C. Westmoreland, the U.S. commander in Vietnam, said Johnson was told that the fighting in South Vietnam is becoming more intense and the Communists are stepping up the tempo of their offensive operations.

McNamara said the chief executive's military advisers reported: "The tempo of the war has increased significantly in recent weeks but, despite this fact, they believe the trend of the war is in our favor."

He said the Communists are using new weapons—rockets and bigger mortars—and are making an unsuccessful effort "to seize the initiative."

"The enemy is by no means beaten," said the defense chief, "but he is no longer capable of winning a military victory."

Rusk, McNamara and Westmoreland said several times that the afternoon of talk produced no discussion of sending more American troops to Vietnam—above those already planned—or about specific military measures.

Rusk made one announcement to newsmen: He said Johnson will nominate Henry Cabot Lodge, who is resigning as ambassador to Saigon, to be a full-time ambassador at large, a sort of diplomatic troubleshooter. In that position he will change places with Ellsworth Bunker, who is replacing him in Saigon.

Rusk said the emphasis in the first round of talks was on the civilian side—political processes, pacification, economic matters. He said talk of military affairs was confined to a brief report.

He stressed twice that, as he sees it, the government of South Vietnam is in full accord with the search for peace.

McNamara said despite the new Communist offensive moves, their efforts have been unsuccessful, their morale is suffering and their losses are running 60 per cent higher than a year ago.

Westmoreland said that in the past year, Communist losses from all causes have doubled, the number of prisoners taken has increased fourfold, defectors have doubled, their losses of weapons are two and a half times higher, and only half of their 154 maneuver battalions are fully combat effective.

Campbell Named by Commission

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—George C. Campbell, 34, of Little Rock, was named Saturday as executive secretary of the Arkansas Constitutional Revision Commission, which is to review the state's 1874 constitution and recommend changes.

Campbell, a graduate of the University of Arkansas School of Law, will direct and supervise the research and administrative work of the commission. The post pays $1,500 a month.

Misconduct Cases in Background, Congress Set for Easter Recess

WASHINGTON (AP)—With its misconduct cases temporarily on back burners, Congress prepares to get out of the kitchen altogether for a 10-day Easter recess.

The exodus is scheduled to come Thursday after a shortened work week which is expected to produce little final action.

The Senate takes up today a $12.2-billion supplemental appropriation bill for the defense and the Vietnam War, providing another chance for critics of President Johnson's war policies to get in a few licks.

But like the first 10 weeks of the session, proposals and arguments are likely to pile up far faster than actual legislative solutions to problems.

The Senate Ethics Committee may begin considering in private the open testimony it took last week on the case of Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., who is accused of using campaign funds for private purposes.

But Chairman John Stennis, D-Miss., says it will be weeks before his committee makes its report to the Senate.

The House awaits results of Adam Clayton Powell's legal attack against his exclusion by the House. It was learned Saturday that about 150 House members have asked Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark to act with "due diligence and dispatch" on House findings of wrongdoings by Powell.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., said the Dodd case "will perhaps give me some further light on what ought to be included in the code of ethics" for senators. The Ethics Committee is drafting such a code, but Javits said he would "introduce a bill for an interim code of ethics very soon."

Bills are scheduled for introduction in both Houses today which would aim at helping finance openly overseas activities of organizations found recently to be getting help from the Central Intelligence Agency.

A bipartisan House group wants a publicly controlled corporation to finance activities of student groups, trade unions and educational organizations.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., wants to establish a fund to be financed by private foundations—which would lose their tax exemptions if they didn't contribute.

Congressmen also have before them the reiterated argument of Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara that antimissile systems cannot be effective.

He told the Senate Armed Services and Appropriations Committees in testimony made public Saturday night that despite the Soviet defense system, a U. S. nuclear strikeback would kill 120 million people.

Reds Attack, 279 Killed by Americans

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

SAIGON (AP)—Swarms of Communist troops smashed Monday at two positions of the newest U.S. division in Vietnam and were hurled back with the loss of 279 counted dead.

The U.S. Command reported Cong attacked an armored bivouac of the U.S. 9th Division north of Saigon. But after heavy fighting and air and artillery attacks, the Reds reeled back, leaving 224 bodies for U.S. bulldozers to push into mass graves.

A dozen miles southwest of Saigon a Viet Cong outfit of unknown size attempted to overrun another outpost of the 9th and left 55 dead on the battlefield.

With the war in one of the fiercest periods of fighting this year, bitter struggles were reported up and down the country. Communist gunners in one area destroyed three helicopters and damaged 13. One U.S. plane was shot down in South Vietnam Monday, another was lost on Saturday and another went down over North Vietnam Sunday.

29 Americans were killed and 131 wounded in the past 24 hours.

U.S. Air Force and Navy planes kept up their new campaign against North Vietnam's industrial heartland, now in its second week. Sunday they bombed two thermal power plants and the steel fabricating plant at Thai Nguyen and Viet Tri, 29 to 38 miles north of Hanoi. All had been hit before.

The 9th Infantry Division, which is the freshest in Vietnam, arriving only last December, covered itself with glory in its sharpest fighting yet.

One of its armored units of about 300 men bedded down Sunday night at the village of Bau Bang on bloody Route 13, some 31 miles north of Saigon, the scene of at least three attempted Viet Cong ambushes in the past 18 months.

At midnight Red mortar fire began to fall and within minutes an estimated 1,000 to 2,000 Viet Cong were dashing in. Some were screaming "Americans die!" About 300 men bedded down Sunday night at the village of Bau Bang on bloody Route 13, some 31 miles north of Saigon, the scene of at least three attempted Viet Cong ambushes in the past 18 months.

Convictions Reversed by State Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court reversed and remanded to Benton County Circuit Court today the conviction of four persons on a charge of assault with intent to kill.

The court held that Circuit Judge Mauplin Cummings committed prejudicial error in remarks during cross-examination of prosecuting witness Mrs. Kiela Dunn.

Mrs. Dunn was asked by the defense attorney if she didn't have her testimony "pretty well memorized."

Judge Cummings told the attorney that "when you say she's got it memorized that is a reflection on her."

Later, the judge said, "Everyone on the stand is presumed to be telling the truth."

Winning a new trial were Franklin Dunfree, his wife Mary Louise; his sister, Genevieve Howe, and her husband, Pat Howe.

They were brought to trial in connection with the shooting of Joe O'Neal, Dec. 26, during an altercation.

Obscene Phone Caller Caught

City Police announced today that a young 15-year-old boy has been arrested in connection of making obscene telephone calls. Officers praised the telephone company for fine cooperation as well as the person receiving the calls. Officers said the youth has admitted making several such calls.
